

AMMC publishes a new issue of the Investor's Guide dedicated to financial information

Rabat, December 29th, 2022

The Moroccan Capital Market Authority (AMMC) has published the fifth issue of its Investor's Guide. This new guide, entitled "The information materials you absolutely need to know," aims at simplifying access to the various information documents related to financial operations and instruments.

As part of the AMMC's ongoing efforts to enhance the public's knowledge about savings and investing in the capital market, this issue of the Investor's Guide introduces readers to the different types of information materials, provides an overview of their contents and indicates where they can be found.

The AMMC, in alignment with its mission to protect savings invested in financial instruments, seeks to provide investors with a set of tools to make informed investment decisions through the publication of financial education content.

With this newest issue, the "Investor's Guide" series now has five editions, with more to be published in 2023. These guides are available for download on the Moroccan Capital Market Authority's website and on its social platforms.

About The Moroccan Capital Market Authority (AMMC)

The AMMC is the regulatory body overseeing the Moroccan capital market. Its mission is to ensure the protection of savings invested in financial instruments and the proper functioning and transparency of the capital market in Morocco.

The AMMC has been a member of the International Organization of Securities Commissions (IOSCO) since 1996, and signed IOSCO's Multilateral Memorandum of Understanding (MMoU) in 2007, making Morocco the 44th signatory country and the third African one. The Authority also chairs the Africa Middle East Regional Committee (AMERC) since February 2020.
